

I would like to see the Indiana Telephone Privacy Act to remain in force. It's pleasurable not having to be bothered with vendors calls at inconvenient times during the day and evening.